“I just need a logo.” Why I usually say no to that first.

The logo isn’t what makes those work

It helps. But what makes people remember you is seeing the same colours, the same tone and the same feel everywhere they meet you.

What I suggest starting with instead

1. One sentence that says what you do and who it's for.
2. Two brand colours and one neutral. Used every single time.
3. One font for headings, one for everything else.
4. Three ready-to-use templates: a post, a status and a flyer.
